ACCOMMODATIONS FOR STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES
1. Policy & Purpose

Appalachian School of Law is committed to offering all students with disabilities the same opportunities others have in order to succeed in law school and, ultimately, in the legal profession. Every reasonable effort shall be made to accommodate the needs of students with disabilities. ASL will not discriminate against an otherwise qualified student with a disability in the admissions process, or any academic activity or program.

ASL is governed by Title III of the Americans with Disabilities Act (“ADA”), Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (“Sec. 504”), and the ADA Amendments Act of 2008 (“ADAAA”), (together, “federal law”). These policies and procedures are designed to ensure compliance with all applicable laws and regulations. ASL’s policies and procedures for students with disabilities have been guided by the recommendations and best practices of the Association on Higher Education and Disability (“AHEAD”), as well as the policies and procedures adopted by various boards of bar examiners in our region. In assessing a request for accommodations, ASL will engage in an interactive and individualized process with the student.

Students with disabilities are advised to seek information regarding policies for accommodations on the Bar examination in their intended state(s) and the MPRE early in their law school careers. The fact of an accommodation received in law school is not dispositive of a similar request for a Bar exam or the MPRE.

2. Overview of Accommodations

Definitions:

A “disability” is a physical or mental impairment/disorder/condition/syndrome that substantially limits one or more of the major life activities of the person. Whether an individual is “substantially limited” is based upon comparison to the average person in the general population (not the average law student).

“Major life activities” include, but are not limited to, caring for oneself, performing manual tasks, walking, seeing, hearing, breathing, speaking, learning, reading, and thinking. Note that “test-taking” is not a major life activity.

A “qualified professional” is a licensed professional who has appropriate training and experience in the field related to the applicant’s disability. This may include physicians,
A diagnosis of an impairment, though required, does not automatically mean that the individual has a “disability” or that the individual qualifies for a reasonable accommodation. The student has the responsibility for providing sufficient documentation to show that he or she is covered under the applicable law, that his/her condition substantially limits one or more major life activities, and that the accommodations requested are supported by sufficient rationales.

A “reasonable accommodation” is a reasonable modification or adjustment to a course/program/testing or the provision of auxiliary aids/services that allows a qualified student with a disability an equal opportunity to participate in ASL programs and activities. An accommodation that imposes an undue financial or administrative burden on ASL is not a reasonable accommodation. An accommodation that fundamentally alters the nature of the academic program is not a reasonable accommodation. A waiver of the attendance policy requirements will generally alter the nature of the academic program in a fundamental way, and will not be granted as a reasonable accommodation.

Process:

ASL’s process for requesting accommodations and evaluating those requests is designed to be interactive and individualized. The appropriateness of accommodations is based on the current impact of the disability on the student’s ability to function in the academic program. Therefore, individuals with the same diagnosis may require vastly different accommodations, depending upon how their condition impacts them personally.

The process begins with the student seeking an accommodation completing an Initial Request for Accommodations form (Form A). Forms are available as part of Appendix E of the Catalog and Student Handbook (www.asl.edu), from the Associate Dean of Academic Affairs, and from the Office of the Registrar. The student must obtain the appropriate supporting documentation, from a qualified professional; the student should choose the applicable form(s) (Forms B—F), depending upon the student’s disability(ies). The student is responsible for submitting the completed Request, including all supporting documentation, to the Associate Dean of Academic Affairs or the Registrar. The Request will be reviewed by the Accommodations Committee in accordance with this Accommodations Policy and federal law. If the student desires an in-person conference to review and discuss the Request, one member of the Accommodations Committee will be appointed to participate in the conference. Otherwise, the decision will be based on the information and documentation provided by the student as part of the Request. The student will be informed of the Committee’s decision by the Associate Dean of Academic Affairs.

Privacy:

All information relating to a Request for Accommodation, including the fact of a Request, is confidential. This information will be shared on a “need to know” basis only.

Timing:

Requests for accommodations should be submitted as early as possible in the student’s law school career. Students are advised, however, that once the completed Request is received, it may take up to thirty (30) days for the review process to be completed and a decision to be issued. If an Appeal of the decision is taken, the process may take another 21 days. Accordingly, students are encouraged to apply for necessary accommodations as soon as possible. Requests submitted less than thirty (30) days prior to an event requiring an accommodation may not be able to be completed in the allotted amount of time. It is the student’s responsibility to submit the Request, along with all required supporting documentation, in time to have the Request resolved before the event requiring an accommodation.

Appeals & Grievances:

After being informed of the Accommodations Committee’s decision by the Associate Dean of Academic Affairs, a student who is dissatisfied with the result or accommodation offered may appeal the decision to the Associate Dean. The student shall notify the Associate Dean of Academic Affairs of the desire to appeal the decision within seven (7) days of the student’s notification of the decision. The student then has an additional seven (7) days to supplement the Request with additional information or supporting documentation. Such additions shall be submitted to the Associate Dean of Academic Affairs, who shall consider the Initial Request, along with any such additions (the “Appeal”). The Associate Dean shall issue a decision, in writing, within seven (7) days of the receipt of the Appeal materials, or 14 days from the notice of appeal, whichever is longer. The Associate Dean’s decision shall be final. The Associate Dean serves as Section 504 Coordinator for ASL.

If a student who has been granted an accommodation believes that the accommodation granted is not being fully honored, the student may file a Grievance under the Student Grievance Policy. The Grievance Policy is outlined in the Catalog and Student Handbook, available online at www.asl.edu.
Temporary Medical Accommodations:

From time to time, a student may experience a short-term condition that, while it doesn't rise to the level of a “disability,” may still require certain accommodations for the student. Examples of such temporary conditions include broken bones, short-term illnesses, recovery from surgery, or other medical conditions. In those cases, the student should submit an Initial Request Form (Form A) to the Associate Dean of Academic Affairs or the Office of the Registrar as soon as the need for a temporary accommodation arises. Supporting documentation should be submitted using Form B.

3. Filing the Initial Request

A. Initial Request Forms are available as part of the Catalog and Student Handbook (Appendix E, Accommodations Policy), from the Associate Dean of Academic Affairs, and from the Registrar.

B. All student seeking an accommodation (whether as a result of a documented disability or a temporary medical condition) shall complete the Initial Request Form (Form A) and submit it to the Associate Dean of Academic Affairs.

C. The Initial Request is not complete until the required supporting documentation from a qualified professional is submitted.

D. Documentation from a qualified professional must be completed no more than ninety (90) days prior to the student’s Initial Request.

E. The supporting documentation required varies by the type of disability/temporary medical condition. Students affected by more than one category should use all relevant forms.

   a. Temporary medical condition—use Accommodations Request Form B. Form B may be accompanied by a letter or note from a qualified professional who is treating the student’s temporary medical condition.

   b. Physical disabilities (including visual and hearing impairments)—use Accommodations Request Form C. Form C may be accompanied by a letter or report from a qualified professional. In recognition of the fact that many physical disabilities are long-standing, such documentation need not be “recent,” but should reflect the student’s current condition.

   c. Learning disabilities—use Accommodations Request Form D. Form D must be accompanied by a letter or report prepared by a qualified professional; the evaluation must have been completed when the student was an adult, using adult scales and instruments. Documentation of any prior accommodations granted for a learning disability (e.g., IEP, 504 Plan, accommodations for LSAT), if any, must accompany Form D.

   d. Attention Deficit/Hyperactivity Disorder (ADD/ADHD)—use Accommodations Request Form E. Form E may be accompanied by a letter or report prepared by an appropriate professional.

e. Mental health impairments—use Accommodations Request Form F. Form F may be accompanied by a letter or report prepared by an appropriate professional.

4. Renewals of Accommodations

After a student’s Initial Request for Accommodation has been granted, the student may renew the Request at the beginning of each subsequent academic year. Form G (“Renewal”) should be utilized. Failure of a student to submit a completed Renewal Request will result in the discontinuance of prior accommodations.

The student named above has self-identified as a student with a physical disability that requires accommodations. You have been identified as a qualified professional diagnosing and/or treating this disability. You may choose to answer the questions on this Form or to attach a separate letter or report.

In order to determine eligibility and to provide services, Appalachian School of Law requires documentation of the student’s disability. Under Title III of the Americans with Disabilities Act (“ADA”), Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (“Sec. 504”), and the ADA Amendments Act of 2008 (“ADAAA”), qualified individuals with disability are protected from discrimination and may be entitled to reasonable accommodations necessary to ensure equal access to ASL’s programs and activities.
To establish that an individual has a physical disability under the law, documentation must indicate that a current physical impairment exists, and that the identified impairment substantially limits one or more major life activities. Whether an individual is “substantially limited” is based upon comparison to an average person in the general population (not the average law student). The negative effects of corrective and mitigating measures (i.e., side effects of medication, burdens associated with a treatment regimen, etc.) may be considered in determining whether an individual is substantially limited in a major life activity. A diagnosis of a disorder does not automatically qualify an individual for accommodations. The documentation must also address the current functional limitations on the student and support the need for the recommended accommodations.

5. Please describe the specific diagnostic criteria and/or diagnostic tests used, including dates of evaluation, test results, and a detailed interpretation of test results. Please attach copies of any such documentation.

6. When did you first meet with, evaluate, or treat this student?

7. When was your last complete evaluation of the student’s impairment/disability?

8. Briefly describe your treatment of this impairment/disability and describe the effect of the treatment on the impairment/disability.

9. In its current state, is the student’s impairment/disability temporary or permanent? _____
   a. If temporary, expected duration: ___________________________________________

10. Describe the student’s current level of functioning and all major life activities that are currently substantially limited by the student’s diagnosed impairment/disability. If the student is not currently substantially limited in any major life activity, so state.
11. Describe the accommodations you are recommending for this student. Please be as specific as possible and describe why each recommended accommodation is necessary due to the specific current functional limitations of the student. Where appropriate, link the specific impairment/disability to the accommodation. If you are recommending that the student be granted additional time on tests, please list the extension recommended (e.g., 25%, 50%). Please state whether your recommendation for additional time is limited to significant tests (10% or more of a student’s grade for the course; tests with a standard exam time of one hour or more) or extends to all testing (including in-class quizzes that individually may account for less than 10% of the student’s grade in a particular course; tests generally allotted less than one hour for completion).

5. Please attach an evaluation report that describe the specific diagnostic criteria and diagnostic tests used, including dates of evaluation, test results, and a detailed interpretation of test results. Age appropriate assessment instruments should be used, and scores should be reported as age-based standard scores and percentiles. (If you are relying on past testing, please so indicate.) Your professional judgment should be exercised as to which diagnostic tests are utilized, but generally tests assessing the following three categories are required:

   a. Aptitude/Cognitive Ability (e.g., WAIS III, WJ III: Tests of Cognitive Abilities, Stanford-Binet, Kaufman Adolescent and Adult Intelligence Test)

   b. Achievement (e.g., WJ III: Tests of Achievement, WIAT, SARA, Nelson-Denny Reading Test—timed and untimed, Test of Word Reading Efficiency, WRAT-3, PIAT or PIAT-R)

   c. Information Processing (e.g., Wechsler Memory Scale-III, S-CPT, TAWF, Information from subtest, index and/or cluster scores on the WAIS-III—working memory, perceptual organization, processing speed, and/or the WJ III: Tests of Cognitive Ability—visual processing, short term memory, long term memory, processing speed, and/or the DTLA-A, or other neuropsychological instruments that measure rapid automatized naming and/or phonological processing, Comprehensive Test of Phonological Processes).

6. Do you believe the student’s motivation level, interview behavior, and/or test-taking behavior was adequate to yield reliable diagnostic information/test results? __________

7. Please describe any informal measures, background history, and clinical observations that aided you in determining that this individual has a learning disability.

8. Describe the student’s current level of functioning and all major life activities that are currently substantially limited by the student’s diagnosed impairment/disability. If the student is not currently substantially limited in any major life activity, so state.
9. Is the student significantly restricted as to the condition, manner or duration under which the student can perform the affected major life activity as compared to the general population? __________
   a. Please explain why or why not.

The student named above has self-identified as a student with Attention Deficit/Hyperactivity Disorder (“ADHD”) that requires accommodations. You have been identified as a qualified professional diagnosing and/or treating this disorder.

In order to determine eligibility and to provide services, Appalachian School of Law requires documentation of the student’s disability. Under Title III of the Americans with Disabilities Act (“ADA”), Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (“Sec. 504”), and the ADA Amendments Act of 2008 (“ADAAA”), qualified individuals with a disability are protected from discrimination and may be entitled to reasonable accommodations necessary to ensure equal access to ASL’s programs and activities.

6. Please describe the assessment procedures and evaluation instruments that you used to make the diagnosis. ADHD questionnaires/checklists, self-reported ADHD symptoms, and personality/psychopathology/cognitive testing are all helpful tools in the diagnosis of ADHD and in ruling out other psychological disorders, but none of those tools are generally sufficient on their own.

7. Please describe the functional limitations of the impairment and all major life activities that are currently substantially limited by the student’s impairment. If the student is not currently substantially limited in any major life activity, so state.

8. Describe the accommodations you are recommending for this student. Please be as specific as possible and describe why each recommended accommodation is necessary due to the specific current functional limitations of the student. If you are aware of prior accommodations granted to the student in the academic setting, please list those.

The student named above has self-identified as a student with a mental health disorder/impairment that requires accommodations. You have been identified as a qualified professional diagnosing and/or treating this disorder/impairment. You may choose to answer the questions on this Form or to attach a separate letter or report that addresses these items.

In order to determine eligibility and to provide services, Appalachian School of Law requires documentation of the student’s disability. Under Title III of the Americans with Disabilities Act (“ADA”), Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (“Sec. 504”), and the ADA Amendments Act of 2008 (“ADAAA”), qualified individuals with a disability are protected from discrimination and may be entitled to reasonable accommodations necessary to ensure equal access to ASL’s programs and activities.
To establish that an individual has a disability under the law, documentation must indicate that a current impairment exists, and that the identified impairment substantially limits one or more major life activities. Whether an individual is “substantially limited” is based upon comparison to an average person in the general population (not the average law student). The negative effects of corrective and mitigating measures (i.e., side effects of medication, burdens associated with a treatment regimen, etc.) may be considered in determining whether an individual is substantially limited in a major life activity. A diagnosis of a disorder or impairment does not automatically qualify an individual for accommodations. The documentation must also address the current functional limitations on the student and support the need for the recommended accommodations.

8. Describe the accommodations you are recommending for this student. Please be as specific as possible and describe why each recommended accommodation is necessary due to the specific current functional limitations of the student. If you are aware of prior accommodations granted to the student in the academic setting, please list those. If you are recommending that the student be granted additional time on tests, please list the extension recommended (e.g., 25%, 50%). Please state whether your recommendation for additional time is limited to significant tests (10% or more of a student’s grade for a course; tests with a standard exam time of one hour or more) or extends to all testing (including in-class quizzes that individually may account for less than 10% of the student’s grade in a particular course; tests generally allotted less than one hour for completion).
